

Thank you for your interest in AIIU’s homestay program.

We are pleased to provide an overview of our services and the support we offer to ensure a safe, comfortable, and enriching accommodation experience for students.

AIIU allocates students to homestay families by considering individual preferences, host availability, and reasonable proximity to the student’s place of study. Submitting applications early generally increases the likelihood of securing accommodation closer to the education provider.

Please find below our current 2026 pricing schedule for your reference.
