

Victoria's Child Safe Standards

Plain language summary

1

AIIU welcomes Aboriginal children. We support them to express their culture and to enjoy their rights. You don't allow racism.

2

Child safety is important to everyone at all levels of AIIU. We document how you find, avoid, and stop risks of child abuse or harm.

3

AIIU supports children to know their rights to be safe from abuse, informed, and involved. We help them to talk openly and take part in decisions that affect them.

4

AIIU tells staff, volunteers and host families about how you keep children safe from harm and abuse. We help them have a say and to take part in decisions that affect their child.

5

AIIU understands that every child has different needs. We make sure that they can get the information and help that they need.

6

Staff know what they must do to keep children safe from abuse and harm. They record, report, and share information about child safety when they should. Staff who work with children have had the background checks they need.

8

AIIU trains and supports staff to keep children safe from abuse and harm. Our staff know the signs of child abuse and harm and what to do if there are issues of abuse and harm.

9

AIIU makes sure children are safe when they use our services, settings, and activities. This includes when children are online.

10

AIIU checks and improves the ways you keep children safe from abuse and harm.

11

AIIU has written policies about how you keep children safe from abuse and harm. They are easy to understand, and all staff follow them.
