

Who is Alliu?

The Australian Institute of International Understanding (Alliu) is a registered not-for-profit student exchange organisation.

Since 1987, Alliu has supported and provided Study Tour and Student Exchange Programs for over 80,000 International students from various countries around the world.

Alliu has welcomed International students from Japan, China, Korea, Canada, France, Germany, Italy, with many more destinations to come.

Both Outbound and Inbound student exchange programs enable students to travel to and from Australia and the aforementioned countries to pursue International study opportunities.

Alliu's homestay and study tour programs provide affordable opportunities for international students to improve their English language skills while allowing them to experience the Australian way of life and culture.

Host Families and Host Schools benefit from the cultural and educational experiences of Alliu's programs learning about a different culture.

Alliu aims to promote understanding, friendship and kindness through the interactions of different nationalities, cultures and languages within homes, schools and communities.

Alliu maintains a robust regulatory framework supported by comprehensive policies, procedures, and guidelines that govern our organisation and work with exchange students, Host Families, and schools.

Child safety and wellbeing is critical to Alliu, and our organisation is vigilant in complying with child protection laws in all states and territories. Our priority is the safety and wellbeing of our students.

Tour Options

AllU understand the importance of enhancing your students' English proficiency while ensuring that all programs meet the specified requirements.

AllU invites all International students to learn English and experience Australian culture on study tours and programs.

Inbound Study Tours

Study Tours provide a great opportunity for groups of primary and secondary students to spend time with an Australian family, while undertaking English language and cultural classes.

Our study tours are a great opportunity to improve your English abilities, experience another culture and to promote friendship across the world.

Short term tours last between 6-10 days and up to 10 weeks.

Long term tours are offered from 12 weeks to the full school academic year.

Tours include:

- Intensive English classes based in state or private high schools
- Full-day and half-day excursions tailored to suit your requirements
- Interaction with Australian students
- Stay in homestay with Australian families

During their time in Australia, students can experience some of Australia's unique cultural aspects and history.

We appreciate the vital role our Study Tour program plays in enhancing students' English proficiency. AllU consistently strives to deliver an educational program that satisfies all requirements.

AllU offers a large variety of programs and have been arranging these tours since 1987
